

Albany Area YMCA People Helping People Scholarship Application

The YMCA believes that no one should be denied access to the Y based on their ability to pay. We are not a government agency and it is through our People Helping People Scholarship fund and generous donors that make it possible for the Y to provide financial assistance to youth, adults and families based on individual needs and circumstances. Our priority is childcare needs for single and working parents.

FOR YOUTH DEVELOPMENT® FOR HEALTHY LIVING
FOR SOCIAL RESPONSIBILITY

Your payment amount will be determined in a fair and consistent manner and is based on your income and expenses. YMCA members can feel confident knowing that they are part of an organization that cares greatly for the well-being of all people, and is committed to youth development, healthy living and social responsibility.

- Scholarship funds reduce membership and/or program fees; they do not eliminate them. All scholarship recipients are asked to pay something.
- Scholarships are granted for 12 months. Recipients must reapply after one year.
- Contact the YMCA at 229-436-0531 if you have any questions.
